

Services Are Set for Mrs. Inus Perry

Funeral services for Mrs. Inus Seana Perry, 601 Lester, Kennett, will be conducted on Thursday at 2 p.m. at the First General Baptist Church. Rev. James Henry Dortch will officiate assisted by Rev. Winford Henry. Burial will be in Brown's Chapel Cemetery at Broseley. McDaniel Funeral Home of Kennett will be in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of the late George and Emma Crisp Blane, she was born March 21, 1891 in Model, Tenn. She was married to Alfred H. Rogers who preceded her in death. She later married Claude C. Perry, who also preceded her in death. Mrs. Perry died Tuesday at the Dunklin County Memorial Hospital at the age of 80.

She was a charter member of the First General Baptist Church in Kennett.

Survivors include four sons, Harrald E. Rogers, Gilbert (Jake) Rogers, James W. Perry and Claude B. Perry, all of Flint, Mich.; one step-son, Jewel C. Perry, Daytona Beach, Fla.; two daughters, Mrs. Ira (Marie) Martin, Holcomb and Mrs. John (Evelyn) Mays, Kennett; two sisters, Mrs. Alma Bennett and Mrs. Millie Bodine, both of Flint; 24 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

The body will lie in state at the funeral home until noon Thursday when it will be moved to the church.